Success Stories

Delivering Excellence at Cannes

At this year's 77th Cannes Film Festival, Milestone once again provided tailored and comprehensive event security and operational support for a global media and entertainment client.

Our end-to-end security management solution successfully handled 35,000+ attendees, 15,000 accredited industry professionals, and 4,000+ global media representatives while ensuring a seamless and exceptional experience for industry executives and VIPs attending private events over an action-packed one-week period.

"Milestone has completely changed the way we think about event security. I can finally focus on the event itself, knowing they've got everything under control." – Global Media and Entertainment Client

Surpassing Expectations for CES

For the 2025 Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, a global social media client turned to Milestone for the fifth consecutive year for a comprehensive event security solution that could handle 140,000 attendees, including 400 internal client employees, over 600 clients of our client, and C-suite client executives, including the CTO.

At the end of the 3-day event, the Milestone successfully managed event execution for high-stakes product demonstrations, provided safety and security, and delivered an outstanding attendee experience.

"No matter how unpredictable things get during event planning, Milestone is always one step ahead. Their calm and efficient approach keeps everything on track without missing a beat." – Global Social Media Client

Delivering Exceptional Support at Davos

At the 54th World Economic Forum in Davos, Milestone partnered with a leading global technology client to deliver comprehensive event planning, security, and logistics for their executive delegation. The event was attended by over 4,500 global leaders, including 50+ heads of state and government officials and 300+ Fortune 500 executives.

From managing complex logistics to providing tailored security protocols, Milestone delivered an exceptional experience for the client's executive team while navigating the unique challenges of one of the world's most influential gatherings.

Milestone's expertise gave us the confidence to focus on our strategic priorities while they handled every detail seamlessly." – Global Technology Client
